Meline spends her free time raising her very active young sons.

Brian Dreyfus

Brian Dreyfus is a partner with Pearlman, Brown & Wax in our Ventura County office. He specializes in the defense of workers' compensation claims and other employment law related issues. He is an experienced advocate and has successfully litigated various and complex cases before the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board and other Courts in the State of California. Brian's past experience includes work as an advocate in the Children's Court, as well as the foster care system.

Brian is a graduate of Loyola Marymount University and obtained his Juris Doctorate degree from Whittier College School of Law. He is a member of the State Bar of California and is an active member of the California Workers' Compensation Defense Attorneys' Association. He is admitted to practice before the U.S. Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit, and the U.S. District Court Central District of California.

Brian enjoys spending time with his wife and two sons, traveling, sports and a good game of poker.

Nicole Golob Minkow

Nicole Golob Minkow is a partner and the Chair of the firm's Employment Law Department. Prior to joining the firm, Nicole was Of Counsel with Jackson Lewis LLP, a national employment law defense firm. Nicole specializes in handling all aspects of employment defense litigation on behalf of employers and management.

Nicole's experience includes cases involving claims for wage and hour violations under state and federal law, harassment, discrimination, retaliation, wrongful termination, breach of contract, defamation, fraud and unfair business practices.

She also assists employers in defending against wage and hour class actions regarding alleged overtime violations, meal and break violations and minimum wage claims. Nicole regularly provides advice and counsel to management on all employment issues and conducts seminars and training for in-house counsel, risk managers, human resources managers and other personnel administrators on a variety of employment related issues with an eye towards litigation prevention. In addition, Nicole drafts employment policies including employee handbooks and keeps her clients updated on new employment law developments.
