

Elliot F. Borska Becomes Workers' Compensation Administrative Law Judge

Encino, November 20, 2017: Pearlman, Borska & Wax LLP is pleased to announce that partner Elliot Borska has been appointed a workers' compensation administrative law judge at the WCAB's Marina del Rey district office as of December 1, 2017.

Elliot was admitted to practice law in California in 1983 and joined the firm as a partner in 1987.

"For 30 years, Elliot Borska has represented a wide variety of insurance carriers and employers throughout the State of California earning a reputation for professionalism and integrity," said managing partner Barry S. Pearlman.

"We will miss him and wish him well as he enters a new chapter in his distinguished career."

About Pearlman, Borska & Wax (now Pearlman, Brown & Wax): Since 1984, the Encino based law firm represents employers, insurance companies and governmental agencies in employment law and labor-related matters, workers' compensation, subrogation and civil liability defense, with seven offices strategically located in Encino, Oxnard, Glendale, Gardena, San Diego, Orange and Walnut Creek. The firm is peer review rated AV Preeminent[®] by Martindale-Hubbell—a testament to the firm's highest level of professional excellence.

